
BLOGGING: UPDATING OUR WEEBLY!

Goal: I can use my Weebly to reflect on my learning, successes, challenges, and events in my life.

Goal: I can use my Weebly to reflect on my learning, successes, challenges, and events in my life.

Our Weebly is:

- An electronic portfolio of our best work
 - A way to communicate and document our learning, successes, and challenges in class
 - Photos of you working hard in class
 - A tool to comment, share and encourage each other in our learning
-

Goal: I can use my Weebly to reflect on my learning, successes, challenges, and events in my life.

What we put on our Weebly:

- Our published Writing
 - Work we are proud of
 - Weekly updates
 - Books we recommend
 - Math games we recommend
-

Goal: I can use my Weebly to reflect on my learning, successes, challenges, and events in my life.

Weekly Uploading

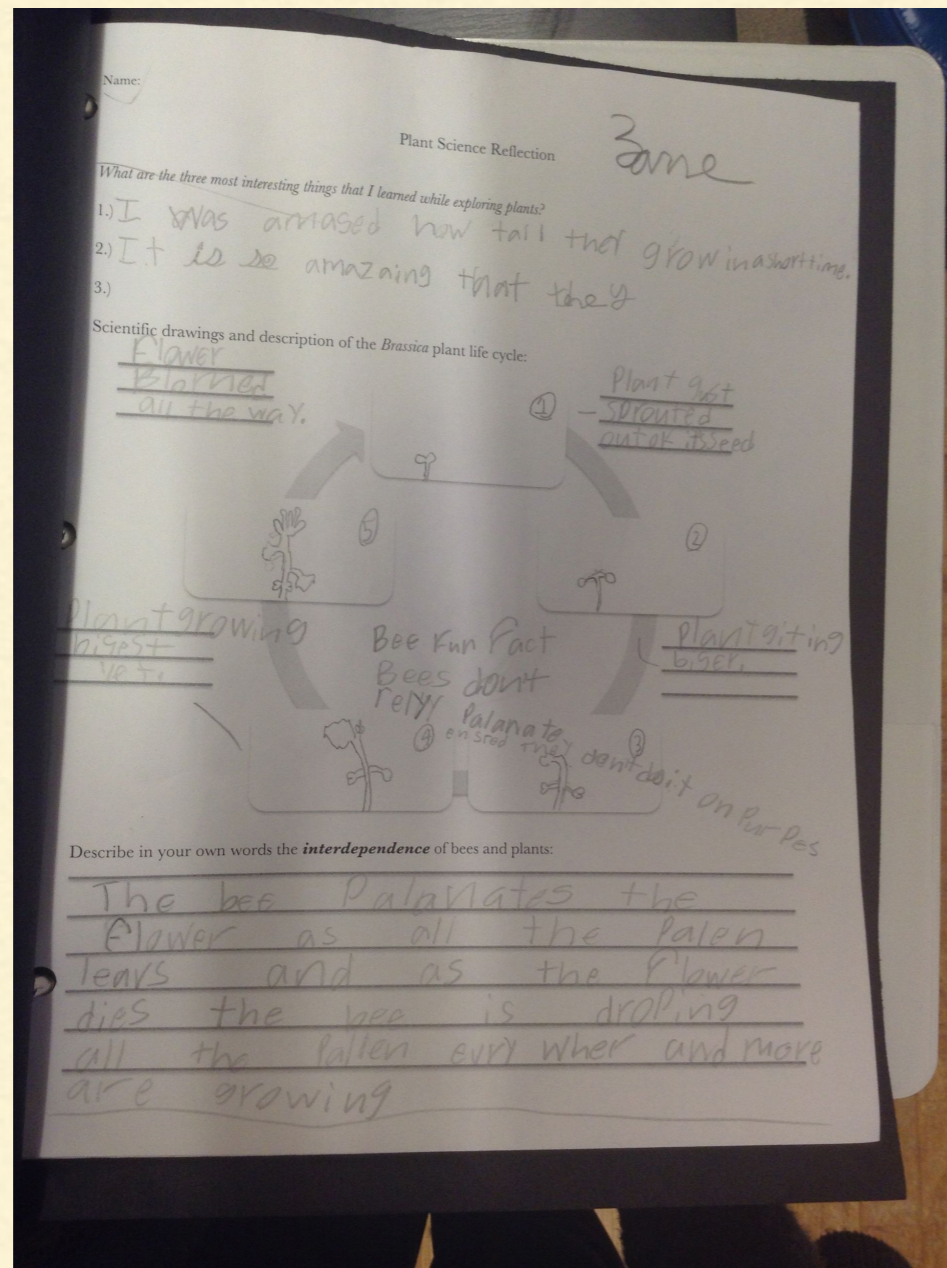

Use your reflection journal to write an update on your week sharing:

- What are 3 things you are most proud of that you learned this week?
 - What was a challenge that you had to work hard to overcome?
 - What were/are some important or special events that happened this week/will happen soon?
-

Goal: I can use my Weebly to reflect on my learning, successes, challenges, and events in my life.

UPLOADING ARTIFACTS:

sque -> Collablorate -> Liner ePortfolio -> Science Upload -> Find yours

- Fill out the Blog Post pre-write sheet on artifact you want to upload
- Quick check-in with Mr. Liner and then head to a computer and log onto Weebly through back door
- Select subject tab that artifact belongs to
- Click on New Post at bottom right of website
- Drag over an image element and text element
- Upload image of work and type blurb to help explain artifact